

Part of
SUMMER NIGHTASTIC!

Epcot® brings back the Sounds of Summer.

Friends? Check. Chillin' out? Check. Laid back summer day? Check. But you can't forget the sounds of summer, with the Sounds Like Summer Concert Series at Epcot®! It's the perfect time to relax with friends and dance to music from bands covering artists like Bon Jovi, Chicago, The Bee Gees and The Rolling Stones!

When it's time for some music, Brad Ross has you covered. Brad books the acts that entertain us during the Sounds Like Summer Concert Series.

"When it comes to the bands, we look at quality first," said Brad. "We also look at the genre of music they play."

And besides the bands that love to come back every year, there are also some new ones as well.

"Take The Rolling Stones Tribute Band, for example," said Brad. "It took a while for us to get them here because we have to get permission from the original band first. We critique every new band the same way we critique our celebrity talent and expect them to deliver the same level of performance quality."

During the three nightly shows (5:45 p.m., 7 p.m. and 8:15 p.m.*), you'll find your favorite summer hits are stayin' alive and well! Join us June 12–July 31, 2010, at Epcot® for the Sounds Like Summer Concert Series!

*Show times vary on July 4. Visit disneyworld.com for more information.
